Gardiner Federal Credit Union Receives Award For Their Financial Achievements Within The Community

Gardiner, ME—On October 10th, Adam Caron represented Gardiner Federal Credit Union at the Claim Your Youth Conference in Las Vegas. Adam was invited to be a guest speaker and to discuss his best marketing practices and achievements with GFCU's Kirby Kangaroo Youth Program.

While attending the conference, the Claim Your Youth organization presented Adam and the Credit Union with the 2013 Claim Your Youth Culture Award. This award is given to a Credit Union representative who successfully communicates and integrates financial youth programs into their community. Adam and GFCU were this year's recipient due to their hard-working achievements with developing and teaching financial and educational lessons to local Elementary School students.
